In celebration of Human Right's Day, catch the funky sounds of the headline band for the month - Teargas - South Africa's most exciting and vibrant hip-hop group. They'll be making unforgettable musical magic on 22 March. Teargas is made up of a vibrant, trendy and like-minded trio with several awards under its belt, including a SAMA (South African Music Award) and a Metro FM award for Best Group.

Tokyo Groove, South Africa's top party band, also features in an awesome month of music that offers something for every taste. The band promises to bring down the house with its rock, reggae and soulful sounds on both 27 and 28 March. Tokyo Groove's debut hit single "Get Down Saturday Night" was a Number 1 hit on 94.7 Highveld Stereo's Homebrew for over a month in September 2009.

If it's not trendy and groovy, then it's not taking place at The Town Square. Look out for some of the best musical acts in Gauteng, with Fourteen 40 bringing its traffic-stopping rock to The Town Square on 6 March. For some stunning music catch SHE on 7 March with its list of songs that covers pop, rock, jazz, disco, Afrikaans and more.

The following weekend, you can expect Joel Zuma & Friends as they showcase their talent on 13 March. The lead singer, Joel Zuma, is a heartthrob with a velvet voice who beautifully renders a wide repertoire of ballads, Afro-soul, Afro-Pop and old-school R&B. Warming up the stage is a sassy girl band called NKD that will turn heads with their energetic sounds. The band, originally made up of Idols 2005 alumni, will perform on 14 March.

Join the energetic singer/songwriter Natalie Chapman as she performs on 20 March. Her song "Are you coming home?" reached number 2 on OFM and was on Top 20 lists across the country. For a musical variety which is both pleasant on the eye and gentle on the ear - Backin' 5 - a five-piece male vocal group with diverse musical influences ranging from Grace Jones to Ladysmith Black Mambazo - takes the stage on 21 March.
